In the workplace, and especially within executive recruiting, a positive and uplifting attitude can go a long way. Always upbeat and approachable, Alex Stevens uses his friendly demeanor to build solid relationships with his clients and candidates, leading to long-term, successful placements.

With eight years of experience in full-cycle recruiting in Manchester, England, Alex made his way to the U.S. and joined Lucas Group in 2015 as an Executive Search Consultant. With a strong passion for the IT field, Alex enjoys combining his IT experience and expertise with his impeccable relationship-building skills to provide business and career solutions for his clients and candidates. By finding ideal opportunities for his candidates and sourcing the top professionals for his clients, he is able to improve lives and business, which he finds incredibly fulfilling.

With his finger on the pulse of current trends and emerging technologies, Alex stays abreast of the rapid changes happening in the IT industry. Specializing in app development, he places high caliber IT professionals in a wide range of positions within mid-tier to Fortune 500 corporations throughout the Northeast. From start to finish, Alex guides clients and candidates through the job search and hiring process, acting as a consultative partner to both parties. His extensive experience in recruiting, combined with his love of IT, has helped him to establish himself as a leading IT recruiter with Lucas Group.

Upon moving to the States in 2014, Alex volunteered with the Central Park Conservancy, which allowed him to explore and cultivate his love for horticulture and the outdoors. A professional DJ and amateur music producer, Alex holds a BSc in Media Technology from Manchester Metropolitan University, England.
