Alexandra Prozzillo was originally recruited to Lucas Group as a Corporate Receptionist in 2013. She quickly proved her immense value and abilities to the team and was promoted to Recruiting Coordinator. Later, in 2016, Alexandra earned the title of Executive Search Consultant where she runs her own desk, working with both clients and candidates to provide career and business solutions.

In her role as Executive Search Consultant, Alexandra works with mid-tier for Fortune 1000 employers throughout the Atlanta area to find the Accounting & Finance talent they need to improve the bottom line. Organized and efficient, Alexandra builds meaningful relationships with both her clients and candidates to make mutually-beneficial matches that lead to long-term placements. With a consultative approach that focuses on the clients' needs and candidates' wants from a big picture perspective, Alexandra levels expectations throughout the entire process and acts as a partner for both parties.

With a focus on living a healthy and active life, Alexandra is involved in several organizations including volunteering at the horse park therapy program as well as with Community Bucket, an organization that donates organically-farmed food to the Atlanta food bank. She also enjoys traveling extensively both domestically and internationally and is a certified scuba diver.
