Ansley Tucker believes everything you do today eventually circles back in the future. Likewise, the work you put in and the relationships you build today will pay off—even if it is months or years down the road. This philosophy is why Ansley is devoted to forming long-term relationships that result in strategic placements for her candidates and clients.

Ansley joined the Legal Division of Lucas Group in 2015 as an Executive Search Consultant. She quickly hit the ground running making an instant impact at the firm by completing several impressive placements. Persistent and fearless, she believes in open and honest dialogue with her candidates and clients, which helps her form stronger partnerships and make solid recommendations. With a genuine interest in her clients' and candidates' stories, she works to help them achieve their business and career goals. From law firm partners to in-house legal counsel at Fortune 500 corporations, Ansley finds the transcendent talent that organizations need to drive results and improve business operations.

Ansley began her recruiting career in 2012 as first a Technical Recruiter and later an Account Manager for Brickhouse Resources. During her tenure there, she honed and perfected her recruiting skills, sourcing, screening and building relationships with top IT professionals. She was also responsible for maintaining relationships with existing clients and making introductions throughout the community to extend Brickhouse's services and create new business relationships. Her experience together with her tenacity and curiosity position her to thrive in her role at Lucas Group.

Ansley holds a BA in Psychology from North Georgia College and State University. A native of Northeast Georgia, she enjoys exploring Atlanta and cheering on the Braves.
