The most successful executive recruiters find fulfillment in guiding clients and candidates to achieve higher levels of personal and professional success. Aubrie Foreman enjoys the excitement that comes with helping others achieve their professional goals while in turn, being able to accomplish her own. With almost five years of experience in recruiting, Aubrie came to Lucas Group in 2018 as a Senior Executive Search Consultant in the Accounting & Finance practice group. In her role, she assists clients of all sizes in sourcing hard-to-find accounting & finance talent that they would not have been able to uncover on their own. Competitive and transparent, Aubrie diligently works to make matches that are built not only on skill sets and experience but also cultural fits as well.

Aubrie began her recruiting career with Randstad doing IT recruiting in Houston, Texas. She soon moved back to her home state of Ohio to take on a new opportunity, when she was hired by Ohio State to recruit across the entire campus. While there, she sourced for a variety of positions ranging from IT to College Deans. A military spouse, Aubrie and her husband then relocated to Tampa where she recruited across the pharmaceutical industry, earning the highest bonus tier within her first six months with the company. Her diverse experience across various sectors of the recruiting industry give her a unique, robust perspective that she is able to offer to her clients and candidates.

Aside from recruiting, Aubrie is passionate about supporting her husband and the military, helping him with various events such as the Teddy Bear Drop. She also enjoys traveling, spending time with their son and cheering for the Buckeyes. She holds a B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies with a minor in Education from The Ohio State University.
