What's in a title? For Executive Senior Partner Jaime Bergstrom, each word is significant and represents an unwavering commitment to her work. Dedicated to delivering exceptional search and recruitment services for mid to upper-level Accounting and Finance Executives, Jaime's intelligent approach to business is exemplified by a Seniority earned through experience and accomplishment. And the key piece to her puzzle is the closing word – Jaime serves as an insightful and expert Partner to both clients and candidates, skillfully identifying and creating long-term, productive, and results-oriented executive recruitment matches.

With a corporate accounting and audit background as well as a decade of A&F recruitment experience, Jaime's firsthand appreciation, business acumen and insightful perspective enable her to deliver outstanding results to companies in and around the Chicago area. Jaime's knowledgeable focus allows her to clearly understand her clients' recruitment and hiring needs and to find the transcendent talent that does not simply meet their requirements, but exceeds their expectations.

From financial services and insurance to manufacturing, construction and consumer goods, Jaime consistently matches client companies with top A&F talent. Jaime's functional expertise enables her to fill vital management roles in accounting, tax, finance and treasury. Organized and hard-working, she approaches each search opportunity with an earnest commitment to delivering candidates who combine critical business knowledge, functional skill and cultural fit.

Joining Lucas Group almost ten years ago as a Staff Recruiter, Jaime has achieved consistent and ever expanding success. Having been promoted time and again in recognition of her accomplishments, she has helped to grow the company's Chicago A&F practice into a powerhouse firm. A vested business partner to her clients and an honest, knowledgeable consultant to her candidates, Jaime's steadfast integrity and knowledgeable objectivity combine to deliver remarkable search and recruitment results.

Jaime holds a B.S. in Accounting from Buena Vista University, and she served as a public accountant prior to joining the executive search industry. Outside of business walls, Jaime enjoys spending time with her husband, hiking and other outdoor adventures. She uses the fresh perspective gained during walks and runs to deliver talent solutions that positively impact both companies and careers.
