Recruiters have the ability to change the course of careers and lives in a positive and strategic manner. Realizing this, Nate Seibert uses his knowledge and experience to help his clients hire the game-changing talent they need while assisting his candidates in achieving the next step in their careers.

In 2017, Nate joined the Lucas Group team in the Accounting & Finance practice group in Cincinnati. He specializes in sourcing high-performing accounting & finance talent for a wide range of permanent positions within mid-tier to Fortune 500 corporations. Nate's attention to detail and true passion for uncovering the needs and wants of his clients and candidates ensure he makes recommendations that are in the best interests of both parties. A subject matter expert, Nate provides his clients and candidates with unparalleled industry knowledge while building strong, personal connections with all parties.

Prior to Lucas Group, Nate spent one year in public accounting (tax and audit functions for small- to mid-sized companies in the Cincinnati area) before moving to finance & accounting recruiting with an international staffing company. His areas of expertise include business development, sourcing, screening, interviewing, salary negotiation and successful, long-term candidate placement. Throughout his career, he has gained an outstanding business development acumen coupled with excellent communication, negotiation and closing skills. Nate's diverse experience in both public accounting and finance & accounting recruiting offer him a well-rounded perspective that is he able to pass on to his clients and candidates.

Always up for a spur-of-the-moment adventure, Nate is an avid traveler as well as enjoys golfing, baseball and softball. He holds a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Kentucky and an M.S. in Accounting from Northern Kentucky University; he completed both degrees within five years.
