Bob Prather

General Manager, Accounting & Finance Division

Bob Prather is your go-to source on hiring trends in Accounting and Finance. He oversees more than 100 recruiters in the Accounting & Finance practice group, which specializes in both permanent and contract placements.

Prior to Lucas Group, Bob spent more than 10 years in finance working with and for a number of companies, including United Industries, a subsidiary of Spectrum Brands, as well as Chemtura Corporation and Ernst & Young.

Bob is a frequent writer and media commentator on accounting and finance hiring issues. Among his recent articles and interviews:

- An Insider's Guide to Hiring Top Accounting Talent (white paper)
- How To Deliver Bad News To Clients (The Journal of Accountancy)
- Top Accounting Skills for Success (Accounting.com)

“ When a candidate accepts an offer, I believe that they should enter into that business relationship with the full intent of giving their all. If you aren't able to give 100 percent to your new employer, you need to make them aware before you proceed. ”
